PERSONAL COMMITMENT FOR 2019

As I promised or others promised on my behalf at my baptism:

- ✦ I reaffirm my renunciation of the evil powers of this world, which corrupt and destroy the creatures of God, and of all sinful desires that draw me from the love of God; and
- ✦ I renew my commitment to Jesus Christ and acceptance of Him as my Saviour, putting my whole trust in His grace and love, and promising to follow and obey Him as my Lord; and
- ✦ I promise, with the help of God:
  - To continue in the Apostles' teaching, as it is found in Holy Scripture, and to which the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds bear witness
  - To continue in the Apostles' fellowship, by taking an active part in the life of this congregation and offering it my time, talent and treasure
  - To continue in the Breaking of Bread, by attending Holy Eucharist each Sunday and Holy Day of Obligation unless it is truly impossible to do so
  - To continue in the Prayers, praying regularly for the mission and ministry of the Church throughout the world and for this congregation
  - To proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ
  - To seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving my neighbor as myself

(Cf. Book of Common Prayer, pp. 302-305)

Please return your pledge card by placing it in the offering plate or mailing it to the parish office. On December 2, which is Ingathering Sunday and the First Sunday of Advent, pledge cards will be presented at the Offertory, with thanksgiving.

Several successive General Conventions of the Episcopal Church have affirmed the tithe of 10% as the minimum standard of giving. As your household discerns your pledge for the upcoming year, the following proportional giving chart will help you see where you are as you work towards – or exceed – a tithe in your own household.

THE BIBLICAL TITHE

As you consider your financial commitment for the coming year, pray for the strength and the will to be obedient to God's commandments; whereby, by the mercies of God, you present your body as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

And they faithfully brought in the contributions, the tithes and the dedicated things. 2 Chronicles 31:12

All the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the trees, is the Lord's; it is holy to the Lord.

Leviticus 27:30

Bring the full tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house; and thereby put me to the test, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you an overflowing blessing. Malachi 3:10

Honor the Lord with your substance and with the first fruits of all your produce; then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine. Proverbs 3:9-10

The point is this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.

2 Corinthians 9:6
